

what's your colour?

WRITTEN BY SYLVIA O'BRIEN

Tuning into your colour personality is the first step toward finding the best colours for your home. We've come up with a fun quiz that will not only help you discover your true taste but also match you up with a palette of the latest paint colours.

1 While on a walking tour of a botanical garden, which of the flora above is likely to catch your eye first: a, b, c or d?

2 How important is a paint colour name to you?

- A Very important. An unattractive colour name can turn me off
- B Somewhat important. But I can overlook the name if I like the colour

- C Important. I find that it can inspire me
- D Not important. I know exactly what I like

3 Which of the following best describes the mood of your home?

- A Soft, inviting
- B Confident, modern
- C Classic, formal
- D Energetic, unique

4 Which of the following colour combos most appeals to you?

- A Buttercups and white sand
- B Dark wood and silver
- C Alabaster and gold
- D Parchment and ebony

5 When decorating, how important are colour trends to you?

- A Not important. With colour, I like what I like
- B Very important. I want my home to reflect my love of good design
- C Not very important. When I decorate, I like to stick to the tried and true
- D Important. I like to be in the know, but I still follow my own taste ▷
